INTERNATIONAL PRESS KIT

OFFICIAL ARTIST BIOGRAPHY

COLORFUL PEOPLE

ORIGINAL MUSIC. A SOUND WITHOUT BORDERS.

COLORFULPEOPLEMUSIC.COM

COLORFUL PEOPLE

Colorful People is an internationally performing Czech-Slovak band with a distinctive musical identity rooted in original compositions, expressive vocals and an adventurous fusion of pop, soul, funk, jazz and Latin American influences. Their music is driven by creativity, rhythmic diversity and an unmistakable sound that moves naturally across genres and cultures.

Described by festival director David Gaydečka as "one of the most promising young bands of the current Czech-Slovak music scene," the project emerged after its founding members studied at the Jaroslav Ježek Conservatory in Prague. Their passion for Brazilian music led them to Brasília, where they received full scholarships to the Escola de Choro Raphael Rabello — an experience that profoundly shaped their artistic approach.

Colorful People performs primarily as a five- or six-piece live band, with powerful vocals, live drums and richly layered arrangements. For intimate stages, acoustic trio and quartet formats retain the same musical identity, using inventive instrumentation and cajón-driven rhythms to create a surprisingly full sound. Across every format, the band shares one ambition: to connect people through the transformative energy of live music.

Original music is at the heart of Colorful People. Their debut EP Reflections Vol. 1 reflects their international musical journey through a personal blend of contemporary songwriting and global influences. When interpreting established songs, they do not simply reproduce them: each piece becomes a fresh musical reinterpretation, shaped by imaginative arrangements and the band's own sonic signature.

The band has performed across Europe, North and South America, Asia and the Middle East, including the USA, Canada, Brazil, Peru, Armenia, India, Malaysia, Saudi Arabia and Kuwait. Festival appearances include Metronome Prague, United Islands of Prague, the Karlovy Vary International Film Festival and the Český Krumlov International Music Festival. They have shared stages with Omar Hakim, Tommy Emmanuel, Avishai Cohen, Jamison Ross and Moya Angela Campbell, and collaborated in performances with the South Czech Philharmonic.

02 / SHORT BIO — FESTIVAL & CONCERT PROGRAMMES

Colorful People is an internationally performing Czech-Slovak band whose original music blends pop, soul, funk, jazz and Latin American influences. Shaped by studies in Prague and Brazil, the group has performed across Europe, the Americas, Asia and the Middle East, including appearances at Metronome Prague, United Islands of Prague and the Karlovy Vary International Film Festival. Whether performing as a five- or six-piece band or in an intimate acoustic format, Colorful People brings a distinctive musical identity, captivating energy and inventive arrangements to the stage. Even familiar songs become original reinterpretations bearing the band's unmistakable signature.